Catholic Healthcare appoints new Managing Director / Chief Executive Officer

Sydney, 4 April 2011 - Catholic Healthcare is pleased to announce the appointment of David Maher as Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer.

David has been appointed to this position upon the retirement of the organisation's first and founding Managing Director, Chris Rigby.

David takes up his new role after 10 years as the General Manager of Hawkesbury District Health Service, a Catholic Healthcare health service in Western Sydney, and many years working as part of Catholic Healthcare's Senior Executive Committee.

Kerry James AM, Chair of the Catholic Healthcare Limited Board, said of the appointment, "The Board is looking forward to working with David and is pleased that the successor to Chris Rigby has been sourced from within the organisation".
